THE BEST GASOLINE

Thousands of people who have used our Gasoline know as to its better quality as compared with Gasoline offered by our competitors generally.
This being true, should it not be worth a little more money?

Garages and merchants who handle our Gasoline and offer it for sale to you, can buy inferior Gasoline for less money today, but they are handling our Gasoline on account of its better quality.

SEES WEALTH IN THE LAND

Chinese Philosopher, Chang Chien, Is Called the Ben Franklin of That Land.

The Benjamin Franklin of China,
the sage philosopher of the celestial land, is Chang Chien, the modern minister of agriculture and commerce whose one idea is to put his country on a sound economic and social basis by improving the land.

Mr. Chang was born sixty-two years ago. His father was a wealthy land owner of Haimen, a country town in Kiangsu province, near the mouth of the Yangtze river, a great cotton-producing district. As a boy he saw the horrors of the Taiping rebellion, which stirred him to help his country to better things.

In the old regime the gateway to success in political life lay in scholarship, and Chang passed the highest in his province and became noted in China for his learning. But he did not bury himself in books. On the contrary, he devoted all his energy to founding and maintaining elementary, agricultural and technical schools, as well as charitable institutions. Furthermore, he was responsible for increased production in his province both of crops and factories. Land reclamation, fish hatch-eries and the improvement of waterways were also on his program.

A PESSIMIST

"I don't believe one knows what true happiness is till one marries."
"And then he has given it up forever."

MISLED.

"Why did you accept him, anyway?"
"Because he proposed to me in the handsomest automobile I ever saw."
"I don't see what that had to do with it."
"It had a great deal. I thought the car was his."

DOMESTIC TILT.

"Why do you persist in propping
your feet up on the veranda railing?" asked Mrs. Cobbles.
"I guess it's just my contrary nature," answered Mr. Cobbles. "The veranda railing is one thing you have never been able to put where I can't find it."

AN OLD STORY.

"I believe the world is getting worse instead of better. Look at what happened to the cathedral of Reims."
"Tut, tut, man! The world is no worse than it used to be. Look at what happened to King Solomon's temple."

THE REASON.

"Candidates for office in Rome wore white robes to show their political purity."
"Then 'tis no wonder Rome
howled."

AN OUNCE OF INVENTION.

Knicker—They are trying to improve our navy.
Bocker—Yes, an ounce of invention is worth a pound of cure.

A MERE TRIFLE.

She—I'm worrying about my new bathing costume.
He—That's little enough to worry about.

OVERDUE.

"Queer summer, isn't it?"
"Yep. The 'is-it-hot-enough-for-you fender' is about six weeks overdue already."

SMALL AMOUNT.

Mrs. Meyer—Could you give me a little money, my dear?
Mr. Meyer—Certainly, my dear!
About how little?

an acre.

Are you doing as well? Are you clearing $150 an acre?

dreds of others are succeeding in the beautiful Santa Clara Val-
